RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

CLAUDIA H.

Claudia, aka "Grandma" was born on March

9th in Torrence CA. She graduated in the class of '56". She grew up with 3 sisters and 1 brother. As she grew older, she married twice. She never had any children but loves her 3 nieces as if they were her own. She also had a dog named Dream that was her baby. She retired from Target after there for more than a decade. Her favorite activities are puzzles, crocheting, books and country music. She lives by many philosophies in life but the one but the best one is, "If you can't say anything nice, don't say anything at all."

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH
JOANA M. Caregiver

Joana came to America in 1990 and grew up in good-old Hemet, CA. Here, she met her husband, Averiel, and they have two daughters, Carmina and Madelyn, along with her puppy kids, Sky and Shak (a husky and a pug). She worked as a CNA, HHA and caregiver for over 16 years. Joana loves working with seniors because they are fun loving and also wiser. You learn a lot about their different personalities. Her favorite saying in life is "Be thankful for yesterday. Be grateful for today. Be happy for tomorrow." She is very grateful for her everyday blessings in life.
