Ralph owned his own landscaping business, and likes collecting tools, along with making and fixing things. Ralph has a German Shepherd dog named King. # MAKING HAPPY MONTHLY ACTIVITIES Memories

Game Shows and Seniors

While almost everyone enjoys a good game show, did you know that one of the biggest audiences of television game shows are seniors? They love watching them, and they are usually much more than a passive audience. They are not just active in their minds and hearts while watching the shows, but often participate by answering the questions. Game shows help to keep our minds fresh and alert, and for many of us, they bring us back to a familiar place of fond memories. They also give folks the chance to live out their fantasy of “that could be me.”

On various days throughout the month, we’ll feature a Game Show Hour airing the well-known Price is Right, Jeopardy, and Wheel of Fortune, so if you hear people shouting out, “What is’ or “Who is...” you know it Jeopardy on the tube. And if you hear, “Buy a Vowel’, it’s Wheel. Besides, who doesn’t love Vanna White?
