RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

RICHARD S.

Richard was the second son and has one older brother named Harold. He graduated from Hemet High School, and then Mt. San Jacinto

College for business, after which, he worked at SCE in maintenance and as a truck driver. He was married twice, first to Christine, whom he met in college, and then to Debbie, whom he met while bowling. He has three boys, Michael, Mark and Byron, and now has seven grandkids: five boys and two girls. His whole family is special to him. His hobbies include golfing, traveling and enhancing his hat collection. His philosophy in life is that "life is short, so have fun!" Richard also believes laughter to be the best medicine.
