A Community That Cares

Resident Spotlight

Peggy McLay

Peggy was born on April 23rd and spent many years living in Alaska. She has four siblings: Linda, Carol, Mary, Ron, and David. Peggy is the proud mother of two children, Mimi and Jim. Among her many hobbies, she especially enjoys gardening and reading. She loves lounging in the sun and cherishes quiet moments to herself. Peggy's life philosophy is: "Be as honest as you can!" You'll never see her without her beautiful smile. She dearly misses her twin grandbabies, Sidney and Wadley.

Employee of the Month

Ligaya C. | Caregiver/Medtech

Ligaya was born and raised in Cebu, Philippines, and moved to the U.S. in 1990. She has been married to Robert, a retired Army serviceman, for 25 years. Together, they have one son named Michael. In her free time, Ligaya enjoys shopping and crocheting. She has been a caregiver for seven years and finds great joy in her work. Ligaya's dream is to build her dream house and retire in the Philippines.

Resident Ambassador

James Williams

Congratulations to James Williams on his new role as Resident Ambassador! A proud Army veteran from Long Beach, California, he brings both heart and experience to the community. With a background in paralegal studies and a love for creative hobbies like painting and jewelry-making, he connects easily with others.
